

North Dakota KIDS COUNT News

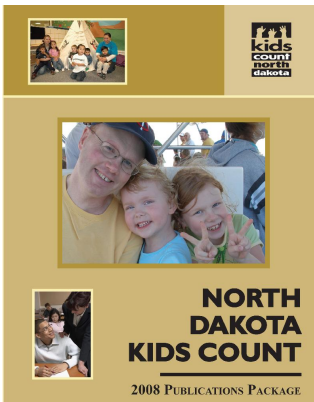

December 2008

Dear Polly,

North Dakota KIDS COUNT's mission is to provide accurate, current data on child well-being in order to inform local and state discussions about how to secure better futures for all of North Dakota's children. Welcome to our first newsletter, designed to keep you informed about current data on children's quality of life in our state.

2008 Publications Package Now Available

Our 2008 publications package is now available. You can access all of our new and previous publications by going to our web site: www.ndkidscount.org.

2008 Overview Focus: Children Ages 0-5

The 2008 Overview of Children's Well-Being in North Dakota provides insights into trends among our youngest citizens: children ages 0-5. This publication reviews children's educational experiences, child-care experiences, health, economic environments, family environments, and demographic trends.

2008 Abridged Fact Book and Fact Book

Our 2008 Fact Book (available only online) provides information on over 80 indicators of children's well-being on the county, regional, and state level.

Our Abridged Fact Book (available in print) provides information on select indicators available in our Fact Book.

We welcome feedback

If you have any suggestions about ideas for future North Dakota KIDS COUNT publications or have ideas about how we might reach new and wider audiences for our materials, please feel free to contact us at ndkidscount@yahoo.com.
